

Author of Light

Two Books of Ayres (c.1613)

Thomas Campion (1567-1620)

Cantus

1. Au - thor of light re - vive my dy - ing spright,
2. Foun - tain of health, my soul's deep wounds re - cure,

Altus

1. Au - thor of light re - vive my dy - ing spright, Re -
2. Foun - tain of health, my soul'd deep wounds re - cure, Sweet

Tenor

1. Au - thor of light re - vive my dy - ing spright, Re -
2. Foun - tain of health, my soul's deep wounds re - cure, Sweet

Bassus

1. Au - thor of light, of light, re - vive my dy - ing spright, Re -
2. Foun - tain of health, of health, my soul's deep wounds re - cure, Sweet

4

Re - deeme it from the snares of wash all Sweet showers of pi - ty rain, wash my deeme it from the snares, re - deeme it from the snares of all con - showers of pi - ty rain, sweet showers of pi - ty rain, wash my un - deeme it from the snares, re - deeme it from the snares of all showers of pi - ty rain, sweet showers of pi - ty rain, wash my deeme it from the snares of all con - found - ing night, con - showers of pi - ty rain, wash my un - clean - ness pure, un -

7

— con - found - ing night. Lord, light me to thy bless - ed way: For blinde, for — un - clean - ness pure. One drop of thy de - sir - ed grace The faint, the found - ing night. Lord, light me to thy bless - ed way: For blinde, for clean - ness pure. One drop of thy de - sir - ed grace The faint, the con - found - ing night. Lord, light me to thy bless - ed way: For blinde with un - clean - ness pure. One drop of thy de - sir - ed grace The faint and found - ing night. Lord, light me to thy bless - ed way: For blinde, for clean - ness pure. One drop of thy de - sir - ed grace The faint, the blinde with world - ly vaine de - sires, I wan - der as a stray: Sunne and faint and fad - ing heart can raise, and in joy's bo - som place. Sinne and blinde with world - ly vaine de - sires, I wan - der as a stray: Sunne faint and fad - ing heart can raise, and in joy's bo - som place. Sinne

11

8 world - ly vaine de - sires I wan - der, wan - der as a stray. Sunne and Moone, fad - ing heart can raise, and in joy's, in joy's bo - som place. Sinne and Death, blinde with world - ly vain de - sires I wan - der as a stray, Sunne and Moone, faint and fad - ing heart can raise, and in joy's bo - som place. Sinne and Death,

15

Moone, Starres and un - der - lights I see. But all their glor - Death, Hell and tempt - ing Fiends may rage; But God his own and Moone, Starres and un - der - lights I see: But and Death, Hell and tempt - ing Fiends may rage; But 8 Starres and un - der - lights I see: But all, all their Hell and tempt - ing Fiends may rage; But God, God his Starres and un - der - lights I see: But all their Hell and tempt - ing Fiends may rage; But God his

17

- ious beames are mists and dark - nesse being com - par'd to thee.
will guard, and their sharp pains and grief in time ass - uage.

all their glor - ious beames are mists com - par'd to thee.
God his own will guard, and grief in time ass - uage.

8 glor - ious beames are mists and dark - nesse being com - par'd to thee.
own will guard, and their sharp pains and grief in time ass - uage.

glor - ious beames are mists and dark - nesse be - ing com - par'd to thee.
own will guard and their sharp pains and grief in time ass - uage.